

Community Organizer Job Posting

Who we are:

St. Nicks Alliance, a North Brooklyn based community organization, seeks to transform lives of low- and moderate-income people through employment, education, housing, elder care and social services. We do this by delivering impactful services with measurable outcomes to children, adults, and the elderly. As a civic anchor, we carry out this mission within the context of building a sustainable community for all people through the arts, environmental advocacy, and urban planning.

We are currently seeking a full-time Community Organizer for our 306 Union Ave location in Williamsburg, Brooklyn.

What you'll do:

As the community organizer is responsible to assist with St Nicks Alliance's community organizing efforts around safe and affordable housing and anti-displacement. The position reports to the deputy director of community preservation.

Responsibilities:

1. Go out in the field to outreach and engage rent regulated tenants on property conditions, understanding housing rights, potential harassment in order to counter displacement.
2. Assist in combatting displacement by identifying building targets, building assessment, door knocking and one to one counseling.
3. Assist housing counselors in creating and strengthening tenant associations.
4. Assist with the facilitation of grassroots and coalition meetings.
5. Assist with the leadership development activities for tenant associations and local grassroots organizations.
6. Represent St. Nicks Alliance in meetings and events with other local and citywide organizations and agencies.
7. Assist with outreach to St. Nicks Alliance and its affiliate's organizations on their services and events, especially the housing counseling and training services.
8. Assist with the maintenance of data tracking tenant associations and leadership development and assist in preparing reports for city agencies and funders

What we are looking for:

- candidate must be fluent in English and Spanish
- passionate about housing, racial, and immigrant justice with tenants
- experience facilitating workshops or public presentations — preferred
- excellent written and verbal communication skills
- familiarity of housing law in New York City — desirable
- an ability to relate to a wide range of people, including low-income families, elected officials, legal services providers, and other community-based organizations.
- ability to go out in the field and walk-up stairs in multiple properties
- ability to work evenings and weekends (as necessary)

What's in it for you:

- compensation: $45,000 per year.
- competitive benefits package (medical, dental, vision, 401k).
- 12 company paid holidays; paid vacation, sick, and personal time off.
- learning & development opportunities & access to wellness programs

How to apply:
